

A MESSAGE FROM THE LEGISLATURE

The Higher Education Appreciation Day, Working for Academic Excellence (HEADWAE) was established by the Mississippi Legislature in 1988 to honor academically talented students and faculty members who have made outstanding contributions in promoting academic excellence. The Appreciation Day is our way of saying “thank you” for your commitment to the future of Mississippi. It is an honor and privilege for the Legislature to recognize these honorees for their outstanding achievements. We wish them every success as they pursue their personal and professional goals.

LIEUTENANT GOVERNOR PHIL BRYANT

Known for strong integrity and sincere concern for his fellow man, Phil Bryant was elected Mississippi's Lt. Governor with an overwhelming 59% of the vote in November, 2007. That reputation was earned during his term as State Auditor where he recovered more than $12 million in taxpayers' dollars that were embezzled or improperly spent. He was first appointed to that position by former Governor Kirk Fordice in 1996, won re-election by a vast majority in 1999 and ran without opposition in 2003. In a job where honesty and trustworthiness are the foundations for building public confidence in state government, Phil Bryant has already made a positive difference for Mississippians. As Lt. Governor, Phil Bryant is continuing his work to ensure accountability in state government. In his first week of office, Bryant proposed webcasting of the Senate proceedings so taxpayers could see their government in action and hold their elected officials accountable. The Senate unanimously approved this innovative, open-government measure. Governor Bryant has a long history of fighting for conservative beliefs, like lower taxes and traditional values. Prior to serving as State Auditor, Bryant served five years as a member of the Mississippi House of Representatives where he was Vice Chairman of the Insurance Committee and authored the Capital Gains Tax Cut Act of 1994. In fact, the last time Mississippi businesses received a reduction of their state taxes was when Phil Bryant wrote the bill and successfully led the fight to end the capital gains tax in Mississippi based corporations. As a freshman legislator, Phil Bryant began a five-year struggle to end the marriage penalty in Mississippi's tax code. A contributing author of two books: 21st Century Government – Digital Promise, Digital Reality and Leadership Secrets of Government Financial Officials, Phil Bryant has participated in these fourth and fifth volumes of a leadership series with an emphasis on financial management, human resources, technology, and auditing. Bryant has also served on the Executive Committee of the National Association of State Auditors. Governor Bryant's persistence in promoting conservative public policy stems from his belief that people, not the government, know best how to take care of their own money. His consistent views and actions in public service helped him earn the 2004 Statesman of the Year award presented by the American Family Radio. Because of his love of the outdoors and his belief in the 2nd Amendment, he has been a longtime member of the National Rifle Association's Institute for Legislative Action. He is also a past president of the Mississippi Republican Elected Officials Association. Governor Bryant has worked with various charitable groups such as Habitat for Humanity, Mississippi Mentoring Network and Mission Mississippi. Bryant was also a member of the Governor's Commission on Recovery and Renewal, as well as the Law Enforcement and Fire Fighter Relief Fund following Hurricane Katrina. Bryant, the son of a diesel mechanic and a mother who stayed home with her three boys, learned early the values of hard work and the importance of education. The Moorhead native earned his Bachelor's Degree in criminal justice from the University of Southern Mississippi and a Master's Degree in political science from Mississippi College. Governor Bryant's dedication to his work is evident through his years of public service, but his faith and family has always come first. Phil Bryant and his wife, Deborah, have two children. The Bryants are active members of St. Marks United Methodist Church.
