

The University of Mississippi.

Chancellor

The Mississippi Board of Trustees of State Institutions of Higher Learning is conducting a nationwide search for Chancellor of The University of Mississippi. The University of Mississippi is a public, comprehensive research institution that exists to enhance the educational, economic, health care, social, and cultural foundations of the state, region, and nation. As the oldest public institution of higher learning in the state and as a Carnegie Research University (high research activity), the institution's primary functions are the creation, dissemination, and application of knowledge through a variety of undergraduate, graduate, and professional programs and public service activities.

The Board of Trustees invites letters of nomination, applications (letter of interest, resume/CV, and references), or expressions of interest to be submitted to the search firm assisting the Board. Confidential review of materials will begin immediately and continue until the appointment is made. It is preferred, however, that all nominations and applications be submitted prior to April 20, 2009. For a complete position description, refer to Current Opportunities on www.parkersearch.com. For more information on the search, visit <http://www.mississippi.edu/ieo>.
