Dr. Glenn Boyce retires from his position as Commissioner of IHL.

The University of Mississippi Foundation contracts with Dr. Boyce to conduct a listening tour regarding the desired characteristics and credentials for the new UM Chancellor.

Dr. Boyce meets with the IHL Board to present preliminary findings from the listening tour.

Search firm, Buffkin-Baker, begins accepting applications for UM Chancellor on behalf of IHL. Martin Baker of Buffkin-Baker contacts Dr. Boyce and asks if he would consider being a candidate. Dr. Boyce declines.

Dr. Boyce completes consulting contract.

Dr. Boyce meets with the IHL Board to present preliminary findings from the listening tour.

Search firm, Buffkin-Baker, begins accepting applications for UM Chancellor on behalf of IHL. Martin Baker of Buffkin-Baker contacts Dr. Boyce and asks if he would consider being a candidate. Dr. Boyce declines.

After interviews were completed and candidates were evaluated, the IHL Board directed Buffkin-Baker to contact Dr. Boyce and asked him if he would meet with the Board. After discussing the position extensively, IHL extends an offer for the position of UM Chancellor. Dr. Boyce accepts.

Martin Baker of Buffkin-Baker contacts Dr. Boyce and asks once more if he would consider being a candidate after receiving more nominations than any other candidate for the position to date. Dr. Boyce explains to Martin Baker that he will not be a candidate in the search and would not be pursuing the position.

Visit http://www.mississippi.edu/ieo/um/timeline.asp for a detailed timeline of the search.