January 2007

Institutions of Higher Learning Experts Guide

The Institutions of Higher Learning (IHL) Office of Media Relations, Communications and Marketing is pleased to offer a new, online experts guide to connect members of the media with the Mississippi public universities' faculty and administration experts.

The guide is completely searchable from A-Z by subject content. To find an expert, please click on the subject in the table of contents.

For further information, please contact the director of university relations at the university of your choice.
